6th Initiative Urheberrecht Authors' Rights Conference

Initiative Urheberrecht will host its 6th conference on the development of copyright law in the Information Age on 19 November 2018 at the Academy of Arts at Pariser Platz.

The following key topics will be addressed:

- the impact of the EU Copyright Directive - which is expected to be completed in autumn and will subsequently be implemented by the Member States - on the situation of authors and performing artists
- legislative initiatives resulting from the coalition agreement of the grand coalition

Further information about the conference will be made available in early summer and a conference website will be launched then. Information about past conferences can be found here: <http://www.konferenz-urheberrecht-2017.de/>

Berlin, 16 March 2018

Initiative Urheberrecht comprises more than 35 German organizations and unions, representing the interests of about 140,000 authors and performing artists.
